No

If yes, does your position for the affiliate outside the U.S. involve either 1) supervision and control of the work of professional, supervisory, or managerial employees, or 2) management of an essential function?

L-1A Executive or Manager Positions

L-1A Executive or Manager Positions

Please identify the department, subdivision, component or function you manage at the company affiliate outside the U.S.:

In your current position outside the U.S. , do you have the authority to make or recommend personnel actions such as hiring, termination, promotion, and leave authorization?

What specific decision-making or other discretionary authority do you have in your current overseas position? (e.g., setting or approving budgets, developing strategy or policies, setting price or quality standards, etc.)

Do you monitor other employees' work in progress?

Do you delegate assignments?

Please provide organization

chart(s) showing your current position abroad. The charts must include the people directly above the foreign national, at the same level, and reporting directly to the foreign national. If the foreign national manages multi-tiered teams, please be sure to depict this as well and include names/job titles. Please upload the file in the attachment section at the bottom of this questionnaire.

In your managerial position working for the company affiliate outside the U.S., do you supervise university-degreed subordinates?

If yes, please provide the number of such subordinates, the titles of the positions they hold, and the university degrees they hold.

Type of Manager (Hierarchical Supervisor of other supervisors/managers):

In your position for the company affiliate outside the U.S., do you directly supervise one or more persons who themselves hold supervisory or managerial level positions?

If yes, please provide the number of such subordinates and the titles of the supervisory or managerial positions they hold.

Type of Manager (Function):

If you do not directly supervise professionals or other managerial or supervisory personnel in your position for the company affiliate outside the U.S., do you manage an essential function for the foreign affiliate?

If yes, please, answer the following:

A. Please identify and describe the specific function you manage (usually described in relation to a larger organization).

B. Please describe how this function is essential to the organization (usually described in terms of financial or operational impact, e.g., size of function's budget, volume of sales, effect on profitability, etc.).

C. Please describe how you function at a senior level within the organizational hierarchy or with respect to the function managed (as shown in an organizational chart). For example what other managerial positions are considered on a hierarchical par to your position with the company affiliate outside the U.S.? What professional positions is your position considered senior to?

D. To qualify as a functional manager in L-1A visa classification, the individual must be managing, not performing, the function in question.

-- Please describe how you manage the function (e.g., setting specific policies or making specific decisions or directives that others must carry out).

-- Please indicate the positions/employees who will carry out or perform the function that you manage.

L-1B Specialized Knowledge Positions

L-1B Specialized Knowledge Positions

List any special knowledge required for your position with the affiliate outside the U.S. Please focus your response on knowledge or skills that would not be commonly known or possessed by others in the industry.

List any proprietary tools utilized to customize products or perform services for an end client. Please explain how these tools are used.

What company-specific technologies or proprietary methodologies do you use in your position working outside the U.S. for the affiliate? Please describe in detail the technology or methodology that is used, how you gained your experience in or knowledge of the technology/methodology, and how the technology/methodology differs from that used by other companies in the industry.

Please also illustrate how your knowledge of the company's product and/or processes is more advanced than knowledge generally possessed by other employees or other practitioners in the industry.

Are you being transferred to the U.S. to launch a new product or introduce a new technique or procedure that was developed by or is currently in use at the foreign affiliate where you work?

If yes, please describe in detail.
